FORT BENNING – The 11th Infantry Regiment has been redesignated and will reflag as the 199th Infantry Brigade at 9 a.m. June 27 on York Field.

Immediately prior to the reflagging, Col. Terry L. Sellers will assume command of the unit from Col. James J. Klingaman during a change of command ceremony.

A native of Iowa, Sellers is a 1985 graduate of the United States Military Academy at West Point, N.Y. He has been serving at the Naval War College, first as a faculty member in the Joint Military Operations Department, and then as a student.

Klingaman has been assigned to Combined Forces Command Afghanistan, where he will serve as the deputy chief of operations.

The Soldiers assigned to the 11th Infantry Regiment train Soldiers enrolled in Officer Candidate School, Infantry officer basic and advanced courses, the basic Airborne, Pathfinder and Jumpmaster courses.

The unit also provides administrative support for Soldiers assigned to the Infantry School.

For more information, call the Public Affairs Office at 545-3512 or 545-2237.
